Section 8 - Did you know?

Direct Billing Medical Providers

Allianz Global Assistance has an extensive network of medical providers around Australia – show your valid membership card and the medical provider will be able to receive payment for the service from Allianz Global Assistance. This means the invoice/account is sent directly to Allianz Global Assistance. You will only be required to pay if the medical provider charges a co-payment, which is an additional amount above the scheduled Medicare fee. Find your local Direct Billing Medical Providers online at www.allianzassistancehealth.com.au/ovhc under the 'Find a doctor'.

Waiting Periods

Under both Budget Visitor and Visitors Plus, the amount of time you have to wait before making a claim for a pre-existing condition (other than psychiatric pre-existing condition) is 12 months. For pregnancy related conditions, there is a 12 month waiting period and for pre-existing psychiatric conditions, there is a 2 month waiting period.

The waiting periods start from:

- the date you or your dependant (as the case may be) arrived in Australia; or
- the date your eligible visa was granted.

See your policy document for further details in relation to waiting periods.
